Crochet to Enhance Your World

Video Conference Hat

This hat came about during the COVID-19 level 4 lockdown. My partner would have video calls with his work mates, just to chat & hang out.

He wanted a funny hat to wear and requested that it had horns & the hat idea was born.

I made the hat itself quite thick and sturdy so that it could stand up to the horns.

Who am I:

This pattern was designed by Charlie van de Graaf and work under the name RibhusLugh.
